Zenith Finance Private Limited, requested the undersigned on August 12, 1965 for the issue of a duplicate copy of the certificate of Registration and certificate of fitness of the said Truck No. HIM.-4462 owing to the default of the registered owner under the provision of the agreement. The representative of the aforesaid firm had also satisfied the Registering and Licensing Authority by filing an affidavit that he had taken possession of the vehicle in question. It had also been informed that the registered owner, Shri Gita Ram s/o Shri Sarnu Ram has refused to hand over the original certificate to the said firm.

Whereas the said, Shri Gita Ram s/o Shri Sarnu Ram, r/o village and post office Bhumti, Tehsil Arki, District Mahasu (H. P.) was served with a registered notice under rule 3.22 (4) of the Punjab Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940 as applied to Himachal Pradesh to show cause as to why the original R.C. was not being handed over to the Financiers. It was further added that in case nothing was heard from the said Shri Gita Ram, a duplicate R.C. would be issued to M/s. Zenith Finance Private limited, after cancelling the original one.

And whereas the said Shri Gita Ram did not turn up within the stipulated period, I Jeet Ram, Registering and Licensing Authority, Mahasu, Himachal Pradesh, under rule 3.22(4), (5) of the Punjab Motor Vehicles Rules as applied to Himachal Pradesh has issued a duplicate R.C. of truck No. Him.-4462 to M/s. Zenith Finance Company, New Delhi. The original R.C. of the truck said to be in the custody of the registered owner Shri Gita Ram, is hereby cancelled with immediate effect.

JIT RAM,
Registering and Licensing Authority.

5. No person while riding a bicycle on any street, road or public place shall carry any other person on the same bicycle, and no person shall ride or cause or suffer himself to be carried on a bicycle on any street, road or public place except on the ordinary saddle of such bicycle; provided that nothing contained in this bye-law shall apply to a person riding on a proper pillion seat of cycle.

6. Any person who commits a breach of any of these bye-laws shall, on conviction by a magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and while the breach is a continuing breach with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

BYE-LAWS FOR THE SALE OF ARTICLES OF FOOD AND DRINK

1. The following articles of food and drink shall not be manufactured, prepared or exposed, for sale within the limits of the Notified Area Committee, in any place or premises which are not licensed by the Notified Area Committee:—

All kinds of sweetmeats including biscuits, cakes, pastries, jams, gurbatasha, milk and articles prepared from milk, ghee and articles prepared from ghee, all edible oils and articles prepared from such oils, meat or fish and articles prepared from meat or fish, eggs and articles prepared from eggs, Bania's stores such as atta, dal, etc., oilman's stores, vegetables and fruits, bread or chapatis, ice and aerated waters.

2. Licences shall be issued by the Health Officer on payment of Rs. 5 and Rs. 2 for wholesale and retail respectively and shall terminate on the 31st of March, but may be cancelled by the Health Officer before such date if any of the following conditions is broken:—

(a) The articles shall be kept or exposed for sale in clean utensils properly protected from flies and dust.

(b) The licensed premises and surroundings shall always be kept in clean condition and no refuse or garbage shall be allowed to remain near about, but the same shall be put in a tube or receptacle of metal and be carried to the municipal bin.

(c) The licensed premises shall at all reasonable hours be opened for inspection by the supervising staff of the Health Department of the Committee.

(d) The occupier of the licensed premises or his servant shall at all times be cleanly dressed.

(e) No noxious articles or materials, considered unfit for human consumption shall be kept for sale on the premises.

(f) The premises shall be maintained structurally fit to the satisfaction of the licensing officer. N.B.—(i) By "Premises" is meant the enclosures where the articles contained in the Bye-laws will be manufactured and exhibited for sale; (ii) by "Structurally fit" will be meant, (a) the premises shall be white-washed at least once a year, (b) the floors shall be cemented for easy washing; (iii) "Inspection hours" shall be the time during which the business is conducted subject to the Punjab

Trade Employees Act as applied to Himachal Pradesh.

(g) The licensed premises shall not be used as living or sleeping rooms.

3. No person shall sell milk, butter, ghee, curd, meat, game, fish and poultry etc., within the limits of the Notified Area Committee without a licence issued by the Health Officer.

4. The licence issued in accordance with rule 3 shall be subject to the following conditions and terminated on the 31st March, immediately succeeding the date of its issue:—

(a) No person shall sell or import for sale:—

(i) The flesh of any animal which had died from a natural cause;

(ii) Any meat which has been blown up or artificially stuffed;

(iii) Any meat in a decomposed state;

(iv) Any milk derived from any animal in a diseased condition.

(b) No licence-holder or his servant shall carry meat or fish through any street or public place except in a clean basket and covered with a clean cloth in such a manner that the meat shall not be seen by the passers-by.

(c) No licence-holder or his servant shall expose or cause to be exposed for sale any milk, butter, ghee, curd except in a clean receptacle protected from dust and flies in such a manner as the Health Officer may direct or approve of.

5. The licensing officer may summarily, after proper enquiry, cancel any licence on breach of any of the rules of this order or the condition of the licence.

6. In the absence of Health Officer or if the Health Officer is not appointed by the Committee, the Secretary of the Notified Area Committee, shall discharge all the duties entrusted to Health Officer in these bye-laws and the Secretary shall also issue the necessary licence under his signature.

7. Any person who commits a breach of any of these bye-laws shall on conviction by a magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and when the breach is a continuing breach; with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first day during which the breach continues.

BYE-LAWS FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF AGENTS OF THE LANDS AND BUILDINGS SITUATED WITHIN THE JURISDICTION OF THE NOTIFIED AREA COMMITTEE, DHALLI

1. Every owner of any building or land situated within the limits of the Notified Area Committee, Dhalli, whose ordinary residence is either outside the Notified Area or who being ordinarily resident either within the Notified Area Committee, Dhalli, is absent therefrom for 90 days or upwards shall appoint a person residing within or in the immediate vicinity of the Notified Area to act as his agent for all the purposes of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, as applied to Himachal Pradesh or any bye-laws, directions, rules or order made thereunder.

2. The Committee if it considers that any owner of a building or land situated within the Notified Area limits absents himself from the Municipal Area to such an extent as to cause inconvenience to Municipal Administration may by notice require such owner to appoint within 15 days a person ordinarily resident within the Notified Area to be his agent for all the purposes of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911 or any bye-laws, directions, rules, or order made thereunder.

3. Every owner who is bound by bye-law 1 or required by notice by bye-law 2 to appoint an agent shall notify the appointment of an agent in writing attested by the agent, to the Secretary of the Notified Area Committee, Dhalli, and no agent shall for the purpose of the Municipal Act and bye-laws, be deemed to be appointed until such notification has been made, and when made, such person shall be agent until the contrary is notified by the owner or agent.

4. The Committee may serve notices upon, or demand payment of its dues from such agent instead of upon or from his principal, and the principal shall thereupon become liable as if the notice has been served upon or the demand made from him personally.

5. Any owner of a building or land situated within Notified Area limits who fails to appoint an agent in the manner required by bye-laws 1, 2, and 3 shall, on conviction by a magistrate, be liable to punishment with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees; and when the breach is a continuing breach with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

6. A register shall be maintained in the Notified Area Committee office in which the names of all agents so appointed together with the date of such appointments shall be entered.

By order,
D. B. LAL,
Secretary.
